MEMBERS: Members coming for the free dinner and speaker presentation are expected to show the courtesy to stay through the program. Last year, we had a very embarrassing departure of nearly half of our members who left after eating and before the speaker started her talk--this reflects very badly on the club and is very inconsiderate of the speaker.

Also remember to check in with Terry on arrival and pay for your guest's dinner prior to dinner. Cancellations must be received by 9 October or you are responsible for the cost of your meal. Thanks!
